Participating in the 97th Four Days Marches?

The Four Days Marches are a walking achievement event for four consecutive days, in which annually 42,000 walkers are participating. On those days, people from all over the world come to Nijmegen to walk in and around the city and its beautiful wooded surroundings. Thousands of spectators are cheering on the walkers along the route every day. After four days of walking a glorious entry along the Via Gladiola awaits the walker followed by receiving their well-deserved Four Days Medal.

The registration period for the 97th Four Days Marches (16 – 19 July 2013) will begin on Monday 4 February 2013. When you are interested in participating in the Four Days Marches, we would like to draw your attention to our rules and regulations. Please read the terms for participation in the Four Days Marches carefully before you register so you know what to expect.

Information regarding registration is divided into three categories: the registration for individual civilians, the registration for civilian groups and the registration for military participants. Please click the link that applies to you.
